To Our Parents . . .

For twelve years, our parents have watched our progress through school. They have been the strength of our lives and the molders of our characters. With each success, they have glowed with pride. Each defeat for us has been a defeat for them, but also with each defeat we have found new strength through them. For twelve years our parents have stood by watching, waiting, hoping, and loving.

Therefore, we the Graduating Class of January 1961 hereby dedicate this yearbook to our parents.

. . . We dedicate
this Yearbook

Administration

I hope each of you realizes that you take with you, as you leave these halls, the best wishes of the faculty and myself for a full, useful, happy life.

You have much to which to look forward. The world is still a place where adequate training, hard work, and great faith all add up to success. There is great fun in living this way.

Class Advisers

To Mrs. Jaffe and Mr. Wacker

We, the Class of January 1961, would like to show our deep appreciation. You have patiently carried the burden of the business complications that accompany a senior class. When we look back with pleasure to our senior play, prom, and graduation, we will know that without you, these affairs would never have gone so smoothly. We leave with you both our gratitude.

Daniel J. Wacker

Counselor

Eleanor Korfmann

It is a mother's job to counsel and guide her children. However, it has been our guidance counselor's duty to stand as a mother over more than one hundred students and to guide them upon the right paths. She has gladly given her time, patience, experience, and effort so that each one of the students would leave West Side with the best possible advice about his future endeavors.

In the future, as we work toward our goals, we cannot help but remember our counselor and her sound advice.

Therefore, we, the class of January 1961, leave with Mrs. Eleanor Korfmann our gratitude and appreciation.

SCHOOL SONG

In morning light and evening fall,
Through all the days of coming years —
In times when glowing futures call —
In hearts with laughter and with tears
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

This love we have for you has grown
More bright than any treasured gold,
It deepens through each friend we've known.
Each truth that to our hearts is told
Within the shelter of your walls,
Within the rooms where wisdom calls.
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

Though we have need to wander far,
Close in our hearts your name will be.
Your goodness, like a radiant star,
Will rise with every memory,
And having these sweet dreams of you,
We shall remember and be true.
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

In morning light and evening fall,
Through all the days of coming years,
In times when glowing futures call,
In hearts with laughter and with tears,
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!
Our love for you will never die,
Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!
